Absent:

The Council continued the discussion on the concept of hiring a private service to collect the City's residential solid waste. Mayor Brimhall led the discussion by offering a brief history of the City's Solid Waste Collection program over the last 30 years. Mayor Brimhall also listed key topics of consideration that have led the Council to consider such action. Topics of consideration include overhead costs, work comp claims, higher prices of equipment, and staffing issues.

The Council will continue negotiations with WEMIGA & Lance Refuse in a future committee meeting.

Steven K. Brimhall, Mayor

Brent Schleisman, City Administrator
