7. Narrative Description

This is a two-story brick commercial building. The building was built as one of five buildings on the north portion of this block around 1867, with the entire façade remodeled for Burket Hardware in 1938. The storefront was most recently remodeled in 2006, retaining the original configuration of a recessed store entry with large display windows to either side and a second story entry with transom at the right/north side. The storefront transom area is covered with paneling. The dark red brick of the upper façade and storefront column dates to the 1938 remodel. The second story has three windows with buff brick rowlock sills and buff brick lintel details. The metal awnings appear in historic photographs by 1961. The one-over-one-light double-hung windows have replacement sashes. A simple rectangular outline detail is found on the frieze of the building, typically of the 1930s period. The parapet has a buff brick coping course, providing a simple accent.

8. Narrative Statement of Significance

Burket Hardware appears to be eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places as a contributing building within the potential Mount Pleasant Downtown Historic District. The building contributes to the historic commercial character of the downtown, and it reflects the period of downtown development in the 1930s. Three generations of the Burket family operated the hardware store at this location from 1887 to 1958. The building retains sufficient integrity to convey its significance as a historic commercial building in a historic district.

Based on research and evaluation conducted to date, this building appears to be potentially individually eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places. The façade remodel is reflective of 1930s construction, with buff brick accent details. The hardware store of M.F. Burket, W.F. Burket, and E.G. Burket was a prominent and long-lasting business in downtown Mt Pleasant. Further research and assessment of the interior features and modifications would be required for a full evaluation of the individual eligibility of the building.

Developmental history of property

The two-story commercial brick building at 123 N Jefferson was built in 1867 as part of a series of five business spaces. later referenced collectively as the Harlan Block. On September 9, 1867, James Harlan purchased the S½ of Lot 5 and the N 30' of Lot 6, Block 4, from P Saunders (Admin). The Mt Pleasant Journal reported on September 20, 1867, "A new block of buildings is to be erected on the lots lying north of the new buildings recently erected by Martin & McAdam on North Jefferson street, by Senator Harlan and Fletcher Dougherty. The building will extend up to the corner of Jefferson and Madison streets and will be one hundred and ten feet in length. This will be divided up into five business rooms, each sixty feet deep, and the second story of the building will be so arranged that it can be used for dwellings or office rooms" (p. 8). The five parcels along N. Jefferson included three owned by Harlan, one owned by Dougherty, and then the north/corner one that was sold by Dougherty to William Harlan. The south two storefronts were two-story buildings, and the north three storefronts were built as three-story buildings. This building is located in the south building/storefront of this set, one of the two-story buildings and likely built in conjunction with the building to the north at 123 N. Jefferson. These buildings at 121-123-125 N. Jefferson appear to have been the original Harlan Block in newspaper references.

Per early numbering on this block, this location would have been No. 39 N. Jefferson, with the other two-story building to the north as 41. The first business to open in this building was Templin Bros & Woods, a dry goods and grocery store, that occupied both 39 and 41 N Jefferson (Mt Pleasant Journal, May 29, 1868, p. 8). An ad in 1869 gave the name of Templin & Woods' store as the Trade Palace (Henry Co Press, Mar 17, 1869, p. 2). The 1870 City Directory lists Templin Bros & Woods, Groceries & Dry Goods, at 39 and 41 N Jefferson. In 1872, Dr. J.S. Martin moved his office to 39 N Jefferson, over the Trade Palace Store (Henry Co Press, Dec 13, 1872, p. 3). In 1875, Ross Virden purchased the grocery that was connected with the Trade Palace Store, at 41 N Jefferson, leaving the Templin Bros & Wood with only this building at 39 N Jefferson (Free Press, May 6, 1875, p. 3). In 1878, Miss Augusta moved her dress making shop over Templin Bros & Woods, 39 N Jefferson (Free Press, Dec 12, 1878, p. 3). In May 1879, Templin Bros & Woods advertise the best dry goods at 39 N. Jefferson (Free Press, May 15, 1879, 2). In 1880, Templin & Woods moved their store and stock further south on the block to No. 21 N Jefferson, the old stand of the Robinson Bros (Free Press, Jun 17, 1880, p. 3).

In 1882, following a fire that destroyed his business at the northeast corner of Monroe and Jefferson, PC Tiffany "secured the vacant store room No. 39 N Jefferson Street, next door south of Rudisill's grocery and has removed what stock was saved to that place" (Free Press, Feb 16, 1882, p. 3). Similarly, in 1883, following a devastating fire on the north side of the square, Geo. W.S. Allen & Co temporarily moved their men's clothing store to 39 N Jefferson. The firm offered "great bargains" on goods "rescued from the flames" (Free Press, Jan 11, 1883, p. 3). In August, Geo WS Allen & Co. were open in their new store room, back on the north side of the square (Mt Pleasant Journal, Sep 20, 1883, p. 2). Mrs. Z.T. Pixley advertised that she was prepared to furnish the ladies with "all styles of Hair Goods, Switches, Waves, &c. &c." at her rooms, No. 39 North Jefferson, upstairs (Free Press, Sep 2, 1886, p. 3).

The 1886 Sanborn map shows this two-story brick building as the same depth as the four buildings to the north. Stairs to the second story are located on the interior near the front on the north wall. The use is labeled as pianos and organs. There is a one-story frame building at the rear of the lot along the alley, which is an ice house.

The Free Press ran a notice on April 1, 1886, that read, "To the citizens of Mt. Pleasant and vicinity, I take pleasure in announcing that I have opened a store in the Harlan Block next Hugh O'Hare's Grocery, and nearly opposite the Harlan, the largest stock of Pianos and Organs ever brought to this part of Iowa." The name at the bottom is G.C. Muir, Western Agent (p. 3).

In April 1887, M.F. Burket & Co opened a tin shop on N. Jefferson (Mt Pleasant Journal, April 14, 1887, p. 2). He had quit his job as boss tinner for W.R. Janes the previous week to open this tin shop with O.F. Griffith (Free Press, April 7, 1887, 3). The business would expand to include a hardware store and was run by three generations of Burkets in the same location until 1958 when E.G. Burket sold it to Paul Jennett (Mt Pleasant News, October 10, 1958, p. 1). In September 1887, M.F. Burket advertised that he had the nicest lot of cooking and heating stoves in the city at this store on N. Jefferson St. He was also well stocked with tinware, and he was prepared to do job work such as roofing and spouting (Mt Pleasant Journal, September 8, 1887, 2). The 1893 City Directory lists MF Burket Hardware at 135 N Jefferson, which would be this building.

The 1892 Sanborn map shows the same footprint as the 1886 map. The use is now a hardware store, and the address is noted as 135 N. Jefferson. The ice house at the rear of the property is gone. The 1899 Sanborn map shows the same two-story brick building as the 1892 map. A one-story brick rear section has been built on the rear of the building (and also the two buildings to the north). The use remains a hardware store.

On Feb 16, 1900, Mary Lincoln (daughter of James Harlan) and husband Robert sold the building (S 23' N 30' Lot 6) to J.E. Holland. On July 11, 1900, J.E. Holland sold the same property to R.B. Brewster for $3000.

In 1905, the name of the store was changed from M.F. Burket to W.F. Burket when WF Burket purchased the business that had been his late father's (Mt Pleasant Daily News, Feb 22, 1905, p. 3). In 1906, an ad for Long Bros. & Co. Real Estate and Insurance gave their location as "over Burket's Hardware, North Jefferson" (MP Journal, Feb 2, 1906, p. 4).

The 1909 Sanborn map has the same two-story brick building and one-story rear addition as the 1899 map. The two-story portion is labeled "hardware" and has a skylight indicated. The rear addition is labeled "tin shop" and is coded green for an increased fire risk. It also has a skylight indicated. The address remains 135 N. Jefferson.

WF Burket Hardware and Co is listed in the 1911-12 City Directory at 131 N. Jefferson, with a shift in addresses on this section of the block per the directory. They are listed under Hardware, Stoves and Tinware, and Roofing and Spouting. By the 1913 telephone directory, W.F. Burket & Co is listed again at 135 N. Jefferson. They remain listed at 135 in the 1913 and 1915 telephone directories.

A large fire struck the area to the rear of the west side of the 100 block of N. Jefferson St on June 17, 1914, starting in a barn at the rear of the grocery store of H.A. Duncan, spreading to the Warhurst store to the south, to the rear of the Wilkins' bakery to the north, and then further on the block. The iron-clad frame buildings were noted to be a fire trap, with no way to get water into the building to fight the fire. The fire had to be fought from the front of the buildings. Brick or concrete walls and iron roofs would be rule insisted on by city council in the rebuilding. This building owned by Mr. Brewster of Omaha had a $1,500 loss, covered by insurance. The loss to W.F. Burket was estimated around $2,000, with the tin shop completely destroyed ("Many Business Houses Are Destroyed by Fire," Mt Pleasant Daily News, June 29, 1914, 3). This building, and the three buildings to the south owned by Adam Weir, then had one-story fireproof rear additions constructed that extended the length of all four stores to the alley with an unified appearance ("Rebuilding Rapidly Going On," Mt Pleasant Daily News, July 22, 1914, 3).

The 1920 Sanborn map shows the same two-story brick building, noted as a hardware store, as the 1909 map. The building has a rear one-story brick addition, noted as a tin shop. The map shows the concrete block addition that has been constructed on this building to extend the depth of the building to the alley, which is noted as a warehouse and has two skylights.

The address for W.F. Burket & Co then shifts to 145 N. Jefferson in the 1917 telephone directory, though they remained in this building. There is no 145 on the block otherwise, and addresses for the building to the south are also odd in this period. The address of 145 N. Jefferson remains used for this building and for W.F. Burket & Co in the 1919, 1921, 1923, 1925, and 1927 telephone directories. This address remains associated with the building through the 1930s.

On Oct 8, 1927, C.W. Brewster, Matilda M Kercheval, Phoebe Cassel, and Margaret Fullerton sold the building (S 23' N 30' of Lot 6) to J.L. Ernst.

A profile of the business in 1934 notes: "The Burket Hardware store has been at its present location for 45 years. The store was first operated by M.F. Burket, father of W.F. Burket. W.F. Burket & Co is one of the oldest stores in town in the hardware business ("Several Merchants in Business Here Over Fifty Years," Mt Pleasant News, September 25, 1934, 5). The 1937 telephone directory lists W.F. Burket & Co with the address of 145 N. Jefferson. The 1938 city directory lists W.F. Burket & Co at 145 N. Jefferson under the categories of hardware, stoves, refrigerators, and washing machines.

In 1938, the Mt Pleasant News reported that a new front was being installed on the Jacob Ernst building on North Jefferson, occupied by Burket's Hardware (May 17, 1938, p. 1). On June 2, the Mt Pleasant News reported that, "Work on installing a new front on the J L Ernest building on North Jefferson street is advancing rapidly. Mr. Ernst is having a complete new front installed from the sidewalk to the top of the building" (June 2, 1938, p. 8). Photos until this time show that 135 and 137 N Jefferson are identical two-story buildings, each with three windows on the second floor and with matching architectural details. With the new front, this building no longer matches the rest of the Harlan Block. On December 1, 1944, the J.L. Ernst Estate transferred the building (S 23' N 30' Lot 6) to Ora Arnold Ernst.

W.F. Burket died on December 5, 1941, at age 88. He was noted as a pioneer business man in Mt Pleasant who had only retired a few years ago with his son Emery Burket continuing the business ("W.F. Burket, 88, Taken by Death," Mt Pleasant News, December 5, 1941, 1).

The 1942 Sanborn map shows the same footprint as the 1920 map. The building remains used for a hardware store, with a tin shop in the first rear addition and a ware room in the second rear addition. The address is shown as 135 N. Jefferson on the map.

By the 1944 telephone directory, the address of 135 N. Jefferson is again used for this building, which is occupied by E.G. Burket & Co Hardware. They are listed in the 1948, 1950, and 1952 telephone directories at this address as well. In May 1955, the estate of Ora Arnold Ernst sold the building to E.G. Burket. The 1955 city directory lists E.G. Burket & Co Hardware at 135 N. Jefferson, with the address shifting to the current numbering of 121 N. Jefferson in the 1957 city directory. Emery Burket is listed as living at 121½ North Jefferson. In 1958, Emery G Burket sold the business to Paul Jennett, thus ending the long line of Burket ownership beginning with Emery's grandfather in 1887 (Mt Pleasant News, Oct 10, 1958, p. 1).

Paul Jennett continued to operate the business as E.G. Burket & Co Hardware until 1961 when he changed the name to Jennett Hardware (Mt Pleasant News, Jan 4, 1961, p. 1). Jennett Hardware is listed at 121 N Jefferson in the City Directories in 1962, 1964, 1968, 1970, 1972, 1973, and 1976, and Emery Burket is listed as living upstairs at 121½ N Jefferson.

On Nov 19, 1976, ownership is transferred from the estate of Emery Burket to Lola A Burket with a change of title. The City Directories of 1977 and 1981 list the Jennett Hardware at 121 N Jefferson and Lola Burket at 121½ N Jefferson. In the 1982 and 1983 Directories, Jennett Hardware and Butch Snyder Insurance are both listed at 121 N Jefferson and Lola Burket is living at 121½ N Jefferson.

In the 1985 City Directory, Tanya's Flowers is listed at 121 N Jefferson. In the 1986 City Directory, the Music Shoppe is listed at 121 N Jefferson. In the 1987, 1988, and 1989 City Directories, the Music Shoppe and Breazeale Insurance are listed at 121 N Jefferson. Lola Burket remained living and listed at 121½ N Jefferson through the 1980s.

On Dec 21, 1989, Lola A Burket sold the building (S 23' N 30' Lot 6) to Judith Ann Hasty. In 1993, an entry was recorded to change the name of Judith Ann Hasty to Judith Ann Milks. City directories from 1993 to 2000 lists the Back Door, Inc. at 121 N Jefferson and Judy and Tom Hasty as living at 121½ N Jefferson. In 2001, the Back Door, Inc. is still at 121 N Jefferson, but the residents at 121½ N Jefferson are Julie Carr and Terry Hay. They remained living here through the 2018 directory. In the 2002 City Directory, Terry Hay, Inc. is listed at 121 N Jefferson.

In March 2003, a building permit was issued to Khampoune Keomanivong to remodel the building, including beige siding on the rear wall. The storefront was then remodeled with new windows and door in 2006 (City of Mt Pleasant building permits). From 2004-2018, Keo's Grill and Back Bar is listed at 121 N Jefferson.

In 2020, James and Christina Matthews purchased the building (N 23' N 30' Lot 6) for $140,000. The Jefferson Street Grill, which is the current business, is listed at 121 N Jefferson in the 2022 and 2023 City Directories.
