401 E. Madison Street Building Cost Estimate

The Committee reviewed a probable cost estimate for the building located at 401 E. Madison Street. Architect Thomas McInerney presented the estimate and provided an overview of the anticipated project costs. Following discussion, the Committee voted to table the matter to allow additional time to explore other potential options for the building.

Brent Schleisman Memorial Trail

The Committee discussed plans for a memorial project in honor of former City Administrator Brent Schleisman. Following Mr. Schleisman's passing, the City received memorial donations totaling approximately $8,700. The Committee expressed interest in moving forward with the development of the Brent Schleisman Memorial Trail. Discussion included potential memorial features such as a decorative archway and commemorative mile markers along the trail. Further details and design options will be explored as the project moves forward.
